

FESTIVITIES SHINE IN THE SOUTH CAROLINA SUN

The Myrtle Beach Area Celebrates Food, Music, and Fun Year-Round

The charm, culture and history of the Myrtle Beach area's communities are constantly showcased throughout the year by the many unique festivals and events. From food to music and entertainment, the Myrtle Beach area offers travelers diverting and enjoyable festivals throughout the entire year that can infuse vacations with distinctive experiences never to be forgotten.

~Annual Festivals~

4th of July Boat Parade (Murrells Inlet)

Each Independence Day, Myrtle Beach locals and guests celebrate in style with the July 4th Boat Parade in Murrells Inlet. Decorated boats sail down the parade route with festival goers watching from equally decorated docks of the Murrells Inlet Marshwalk and picturesque restaurants. The day concludes with a spectacular firework display in the Inlet, and awards for the best boat and dock decorations. For more information call (843) 651-5675 or visit www.murrellsinletsc.com.

Aynor Harvest HoeDown

Aynor Harvest HoeDown is an autumn event the whole family can enjoy. The day-long festival in September showcases over 140 craft booths, entertainment, food, games, plus a parade and a street dance to top it all off! For more information, please visit www.aynorscchamber.org.

Beach, Boogie & BBQ Festival

The "grand finale" of summer, this Labor Day weekend festival, which draws between 50,000 and 60,000 visitors, features the official barbecue competition of South Carolina, live entertainment and Kids Zone among other events held at Grand Park across from The Market Common. In 2012, the festival will run August 31 to September 2. For more information, call (800) 356-3016 or visit www.grandstrandevents.com/beachboogiebbq.

Blue Crab Festival

Each May, the community of Little River, SC plays host to the annual Blue Crab Festival, drawing in excess of 50,000 people who come out to enjoy a weekend of live music, arts and crafts, beautiful seafaring culture, and of course...sweet and savory blue crab! The next Blue Crab Festival will be held on May 19 and 20, 2012. For more information call (843) 249-1682 or visit www.bluecrabfestival.org.

Bluegrass on the Waccamaw

Each May, the quaint community of Conway, SC is host to the Bluegrass on the Waccamaw festival, offering an array of musical acts in Historic Downtown Conway's Riverfront Park just beneath the Waccamaw River Bridge. First organized in 1997, the festival is presented by community-member Jennings Chestnut, Sr. – owner of the Chestnut Mandolin Shop on Main Street, Conway – bringing local, regional, and national groups together for "World Class Bluegrass" on the grounds of the Old Peanut Warehouse in Conway. This year, the festival will be May 12. For more information, call (843) 248-5399 or visit www.bluegrassonthewaccamaw.com.

Canadian-American Days Festival

Each year in early March, thousands of America's Canadian neighbors and snowbirds visit from the North and scatter throughout the Grand Strand communities in advance of spring for the Canadian-American Days Festival. The almost two-week-long festival, which runs March 10-18 in 2012, features events, activities and discounts, including welcome receptions, military band concerts, athletic tournaments and wildlife and history days. For more information, call (800) 356-3016 or visit www.CanAmDays.com.

Coastal Uncorked

Coastal Uncorked, the Myrtle Beach area's premier food and wine festival, celebrated its inaugural season in the spring of 2010. The festival will take place April 22-29, 2012 and all proceeds will be donated to two local hospitality programs: the Horry Georgetown Technical College Culinary School and the Clay Brittain Hospitality Program at Coastal Carolina University. The event will feature a variety of exclusive offerings including: Restaurant Week, Wine Around Myrtle Beach, outdoor entertainment, a Coastal Uncorked Golf Tournament and the Coastal Uncorked Food Fight Chef Competition and Gala. The eight-day festival will also include a variety of other events, including a poster competition, children's culinary events, live music and a cake competition.
